FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SeaCliff Beauty Packaging & Laboratories Unveils New Fully Customizable Taesung Airless Components

SeaCliff Beauty Packaging & Laboratories now offers their clients cutting-edge customizable airless components from Taesung. Designed to be an option for high-end cosmetic and skincare products, the airless delivery systems allow easy evacuation of the product. With custom color options, as well as numerous choices for decoration and sizing, the airless components are completely customizable to clients' unique specifications.

Among the airless components available is a Dual Airless Dispenser boasting a flip-top cap option that enables consumers to store three different products in components. The other airless components include Slick Roller Ball Airless Foundation and Concealer Brush Applicators, as well as a Roller Ball Airless Touch intended for under-eye treatments.

"These innovative airless components allow us to provide our clients with several unique packaging options so that they can customize the products according to their own needs," says Vonda Simon, president of SeaCliff Beauty Packaging & Laboratories. "Delivering maximum value, the airless delivery systems allow consumers to get every last drop of the product out."

All components require a minimum order of 5,000 pieces for customization.
